

YOU ARE INVITED

USC Shoah Foundation | IWALK

ADL[®]

A special professional development opportunity for Philadelphia area educators

WHY ATTEND THIS PROGRAM?

Philadelphia is home to the new Horwitz-Wasserman Holocaust Memorial Plaza. The Memorial Plaza features USC Shoah Foundation's IWalk app that guides visitors through the interpretive elements of the Memorial Plaza with background information and personal testimonies of Holocaust survivors and other witnesses.

To support educators' integration of this innovative resource, the Philadelphia Holocaust Remembrance Foundation and USC Shoah Foundation have partnered with ADL to provide professional development to educators in the Philadelphia area.

Photo credit: Bradley Digital

PROGRAM GOALS

- + Experience the Horwitz-Wasserman Holocaust Memorial Plaza IWalk educational experience.
- + Explore the teacher and student functions of the IWalk and learn how to access the testimony-based resources available to support student learning.
- + Increase capacity to engage students in a study of historic and contemporary themes related to the Holocaust and help counter stereotyping, prejudice, and antisemitism.

REGISTER NOW

“People forget how bad hatred is. I was imprisoned in Auschwitz. For a long time I didn't want to talk about my experiences, but now I understand that I must. We need to fight hate. This is what I would leave as my legacy: to remember that hate is a terrible thing.”

— Suzy Ressler, 90, Holocaust Survivor and Philadelphia Resident

PROGRAM DETAILS

Wednesday, April 10, 2019
3:30 – 6:00 p.m.

Cozen O'Connor
One Liberty Place, 1650 Market Street,
28th floor
Philadelphia, PA 19103

Snacks and beverages will be provided.
Attendees will receive a $20 stipend for parking/transportation costs.

QUESTIONS?

Please contact Randi Boyette, ADL Education Director, at rboyette@adl.org or 215-568-2223.

Developed with support from

PHILADELPHIA HOLOCAUST
REMEMBRANCE FOUNDATION